Perioperative Allergy Network - multidisciplinary seminar

Thursday 14 March 2024
Location: 21 Portland Place, London
Organiser: Dr Louise Savic, Leeds

09:00 Registration / tea and coffee
09:30 Introduction
09:40 Network update
   Dr Louise Savic
10:00 Emerging and unusual allergens 1B01
   Dr Linda Nel
10:30 Pro-con debate: “All penicillin allergic patients can receive a cephalosporin surgical prophylaxis” 1A02
   Dr Tomaz Garcez and Dr Ricardo Madrigal
11:10 Tea and coffee
11:30 Difficult cases and the benefits of collaboration 1B01
   Dr Linda Nel, Dr Louise Savic, Dr Sarah Johnston
12:30 Demonstration of Perioperative Allergy Safety System (PASS) 1G01
   Dr Louise Savic
12:45 Lunch
13:45 Parallel sessions

   Allergy for the anaesthetist:
   1. What is allergy….and when is it not allergy? 2A07
      Dr Sarah Johnston
   2. The mast in the storm: mast cell disorders and anaesthesia 2A07
      Dr Tomaz Garcez

   Anaesthesia for the allergist/immunologist
   1. Physiological effects of drugs and surgery: the good, the bad and the ugly 2A06
      Dr Kathleen Ferguson
   2. How to interpret the anaesthetic chart: pitfalls and phantoms 2A06
      Dr Amy Dodd

15:15 Delegate discussion
An opportunity to tell the network about improvements you would like to see in perioperative allergy care, share learning from your practice, and build links with others working in the field.

15:45 Summary and Close of meeting