Association of Anaesthetists Webinar:
Monitoring the brain in the peri-operative period

Tuesday 21 April 2020
Online – login from 5:45pm, starts at 6pm
Organiser: Prof Andrew Klein, Consultant, Royal Papworth Hospital, Cambridge

17:45  Log in available
18:00  Introduction
       Prof Andrew Klein, Consultant, Royal Papworth Hospital, Cambridge, UK
18:05  Using the EEG to monitor and protect the brain during anaesthesia and surgery - How we Protect the brain
       Dr. Marusa Naranjo González, Head of Clinical Anesthesiology, Mérida, Mexico
18:25  Q&A
18:35  Cerebral oximetry and targeting cerebral perfusion during anaesthesia and surgery - can it improve outcomes?
       André Denault, Professor of Anesthesiology, University of Montreal, Canada
18:55  Q&A
19:05  Postoperative cognitive dysfunction (POCD) and delirium: improving outcomes in high-risk patients
       Dr Fay Gilder, Cambridge University Hospitals
19:25  Q&A
19:35  Brain function monitoring and cerebral oximetry: putting it all together. Healthy brain = good outcomes
       Pierre Pandin Specialist in Anaesthesiology & Reanimation, CUB Hôpital Erasme, Brussels, Belgium
19:55  Q&A
20:05  Close

Meeting funded by Masimo. Agenda and speakers organised and selected by the Association of Anaesthetists