Monday 3 December 2018
Online – login from 6pm
Organiser: Dr Mike Nathanson

18:00  Log in available

18:25  Introduction
Dr Mike Nathanson

18:30  Impacts of extreme weather on public health
Dr Robert Wilby
   Professor of Hydroclimatic Modelling, Department of Geography, Loughborough University

19:00  Q&A

19:15  Recycling: Impediments, blockages and barriers. How can we start overcoming them?
Dr Tim Vorster
   Clinical Director of Anaesthetics and Pre-assessment, Queen Victoria Hospital, ‘Green Champion’, and founding member of the QVH Sustainability Development Group.

19:45  Q&A

20:00  What we can do/should do to minimise the environmental impact of anaesthesia delivery?
Dr Tom Pierce
   Consultant adult and paediatric cardiac anaesthetist, University Hospital Southampton

20:30  Q&A
Association of Anaesthetists Webinar: Environment and Sustainability

Monday 3 December 2018
Online – login from 6pm
Organiser: Dr Mike Nathanson

This webinar will meet the following learning objectives:

- To understand the impact of extreme weather on public health
- To gain an understanding of steps that can be taken to minimise this impact
- To gain an understanding of the actions that can be taken to minimise the environmental impact of anaesthesia delivery
- To understand how to overcome barriers to effective recycling

And the following codes and GMC Domains

Domain 1 – Knowledge, skills and performance
Domain 2 – Safety and Quality
3J00 – other non clinical